..... PETITIONERS

AND

The District collector (Panchayat Wing), Anantapur,

Anantapur District.

.....RESPONDENT

Petition under Article 226 of the constitution of India praying that in the circumstances stated in the Affidavit filed herein the High Court will be pleased to issue a writ order or direction more particularly in the nature of a writ of Mandamus directing the respondent to provide a job to the 2nd petitioner in place of her deceased father commensurating with her qualifications after calling for the entire records and grant such other relief as this Hon'ble Court may deem fit.

Counsel for the Petitioner: MR.S.VENKATESWARA RAO

Counsel for the Respondent: G.P. FOR PANCHAYAT RAJ

The Court made the following:

THE HONOURABLE SRI JUSTICE D.S.R.VARMA

W.P.NO.4614 OF 1995

ORAL ORDER:

Heard both sides.

2. The first petitioner is the wife and the second petitioner is the daughter of the deceased employee. The second petitioner seeks compassionate appointment. A representation has also been made. It appears that the same was not considered. This Court by order, dated 10-03-1997, directed the respondent herein to consider the representation of the second petitioner herein.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners submits that he has no information as to whether the said direction of this Court was complied with or not.

4. Having regard to the facts and circumstances, particularly since the petitioners have been seeking compassionate appointment and made a representation in that regard, I feel it expedient to dispose of the present writ petition with a direction to the respondent to dispose of the representation, dated 14-09-1993, if any, made by the second petitioner herein, seeking compassionate appointment, as expeditiously as possible, preferably within a period of twelve weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order.

5. Accordingly, the writ petition is disposed of. However, there shall be no order as to costs.
